

Principal's Update

Lynnhurst Elementary School

February starts tomorrow, can you believe it? I can not believe how quickly this school year is flying by. We have quite a few activities and events coming up so please check the list below.

Please continue to work together during drop-off and pick-up. A reminder that Reservoir Street, which is located just beyond the baseball field, is a public Street and should not be blocked at anytime. Thank you for continuing to be courteous to our neighbors.
